

Carol joined the Friends Board in 2020. She is currently membership chair and active in committee work. She studied environmental science, and worked as a cartographer, then moved to the Juneau Public Libraries. She enjoyed working for 27 years as program coordinator, planning & implementing programs, writing grants as well as bringing libraries alive to youth and working with the Alaska State Library Association. Carol loves to hike, ski, forage, read and teaches yoga. She enjoys visits to libraries and museums where ever she travels.
